
Your Majesty,

I am delighted to have a chance to write this letter to you,
Madam.

I would like to give you best wishes on your 70th regnal day. I wish you plenty of health and happiness. I bid you many more years of ruling.

My name is Martyna and I live with my family in a small town in Poland. I adore my small town, as there are my friends, my school, my family and everything that I love. I attended primary school and now I am in Year 8. Soon I'm writing exams and then I have to choose my new secondary school. I still do not know whom I want to be in the future and I do not know my purposes. I enjoy learning. The variety of subjects is important for me.

It is remarkable, how long you are a head of the family and a head of your wonderful country. I admire the function of the Royal Family in the daily life of the British people. You give them hope to hold the United Kingdom together.

God bless the Queen,
Martyna Wójcicka
